Walk for Peace

Peace in the City

Friday October 23 at 11am
Tarntanyangga - Victoria Square Fountain

Join us for a peaceful walk through the streets of Adelaide, pausing at several spots to be greeted by peace ambassadors and culminating in a get-together at the Karrawirra Peace Park Peace Pole.

11 to 11.15am
Tarntanyangga/Victoria Square Fountain
Welcome to Country: Deb Buckskin, Kaurna Narungga leader
Peace Ambassador: Lord Mayor, Dr Jane Lomax-Smith

11.20 to 11.25am
St Aloysius College Peace Pole
Peace Ambassador Georgina Tenny, International Relations and Political Science (Hons)

11.40am
Gillies Street Primary School Peace Pole
"Peace begins where our footsteps meet."

11.45am
Pulteney Grammar School
"One city, one walk, one shared hope."

12 noon to 12.05
Muriel Matters Society Peace Pole
Peace Ambassador Georgina Tenny, International Relations and Political Science (Hons)

12.15pm
St Luke's Old Rectory Peace Pole
"Peace begins in the home."

12.35 to 12.40pm
St Mary's College, Franklin St. Peace Pole
Peace Ambassador: Val Alonso
"Music has the power to create peace."

1.10 to 1.15pm
Pinku (Pinky Flat)
Peace Ambassador: Uncle Rod O'Brien, Kaurna Elder
"Pilyunirna yartangka"

1.30 to 1.35pm
Adelaide Oval Peace Pole
Peace Ambassador: Nick Addision, CEO Adelaide Oval Stadium Management Authority

1.45 to 1.50pm
St Peter's Cathedral Peace Pole
Peace Ambassador: Hon Rev Dr Lynn Arnold AO. Assistant Priest at St Peter's Anglican Cathedral

2.00 to 3.00pm
Karrawirra – Peace Park Peace Pole
Peace Ambassadors:
Heidi Unferdorben and Jo Fiedler - Rotary Adelaide
Ella Wallace - Year 6 student
Val Alonso - Bilingual Entertainer
Leonie Ebert and Naomi Ebert Smith - Graham F Smith Peace Foundation
Marie-louise Lees - Past Rotary District 9510 Governor
Music, activities and refreshments

